NEW ARRIVALS AT UNITED CITY.

FIGHTING THE BATTLE OVER AGAIN.

AGED VETERANS AT HOME IN CAMP

SUN IS SCORCHING ON BATTLEFIELD

Great Suffering Among Aged Soldiers Who Pack Tented City.

OFFICIALS VERY ANXIOUS

Inability of Railroads to Handle Tremendous Throng Partly Responsible.

sylvania health department officonsiderable anxiety to-night.
The Hamilton, of the Seventy-second Pennsylvania, said one, and "I'm train that arrived late this afterand evening brought hundreds of said the other.

onal veterans and the other.

of sheltering and feeding the extra thousands is a pressing problem.

The maximum estimated attendance furnished the War Department by the G.A. R. and the Confederate Veterans' Association was placed at 50,000. Accordingly a tent city and commissary for that number was provided. The unexpected arrival of several thousand others forced many of the late arrivals last night to sleep in the open, and nany suffered from lack of food. During the afternoon hundreds of the vetarans, especially those who spent the alght in the open, left for their homes.

A large portion of the inconvenience was due to the inability of the railoads to handle the tremendous crowd

"They got about to here," he explained, "and then we beat them back.

And it must have been right about here that a Johnny fell, almost into my arms. I lifted him up and gave off." Well, that night we slept on our

AGAIN THEY MARCH IN BATTLEFIELD.

AND EU ALVEYDG VUU

ing of this fiftieth anniversary of Gettysburg. Smith, with a party of former Confederates, had trudged over to the point where Pickett's charge went to pieces against the stone wall of Federals. Gathered about the Angle, through which Armistead and a few other Southerners scrambled at the height of the charge, was also a group of ex-Yankees.

"Right here," Smith cried, "we leaped across. I had reached a yard beyond the wall, I guess, about there, when I was hit and fell. I remember only that a man in blue came toward me five minutes later, when our army had broken in retreat, and, lifting me up, gave me a drink of water and carried me off on his shoulders. When I returned to consciousness, I was in a Yankee field hospital, and my preserver had gone."

Handleto with thankfulness to the Almight that He has wrought to ut in this way.

"That Hambleto with thankfulness to the Almight with thankfulness to the Almighty that He has wrought to ut in this way.

"That Hambleto with thankfulness to the Almight with this whith thankfulness to the Almighty that He has wrought to ut in this way.

"That hight, fifty years ago, my mind was filled with sorrows and the perils of the situation, but also with what I hope I may call a patriotic ferton the transmit of the situation, but also with what I hope I may call a patriotic ferton the Union cause. I knew that a frightful battle was impending, that thousands of lives were about to be sacrificed in the cause which was at stake; that my life, too, was trembling in the balance.

But my feeling was one of hope that our side would win, and I prayed to God that night that it would. As it turned out, I was only to lose my limb. I sacrificed it willingly. At the time the more of the Cook of the Situation, but also with what I hope I may call a patriotic ferton on retrest and war we for the Union cause. I knew that a frightful battle was instantion, but also with the series and the minutes and the field with thas with this way.

That this, and the has wrought was a goo, my mind was fil

Yankee field hospital, and my preserver had gone."

Hamilton, who had not been listen
"This has to do with the second day's fighting, but I remember a curious thing that happened when they cut my since January 1. ing to the story of the Confederate, at this moment led his own party over to the Angle.

Leg off in the field hospital. As I came out of the effects of the chloroform I heard the surgeon say: 'We They got about to here," he ex- will save his life. This is a victory.

IN PITILESS HEAT

Continued From First Page.)

The same boys were there continued From First Page.)

In the Bloody Angle of Gettysburg and to-day, at the point where Pickit's charge, then in its desperate fury, roke through the Union lines on the third day, A. C. Smith, a Confederate veteran, clasped hands with Albert N. Hamilton, of the Union forces, who ifty years ago carried Smith from the iring line after he had been danger-usly wounded, and thereby saved his ing of this fiftieth anniversary of Getics.

(Continued From First Page.)

(Is a first page.)

(Is are taken after a few minutes' rest.

(The army ambulances were fairly bury during the day, and there were several hundred men who dropped in at relief stations, got a bit of medicine, rested then day, and there were several hundred men who dropped in at relief stations, got a bit of medicine, rested for a half hour or so and then went back to their tens.

(Although the army ambulances were lave during the day, and there were several hundred men who dropped in at rel Two veterans, apparently without friends, have been found in camp

THE WEATHER.

Forecast: Virginia—Fair and warm Wednesday, followed by showers and cooler in afternoon or night: Thursday unsettled, probably showers in south portion: light to moderate south winds, becoming variable.

Special Local Data for Yesterday.

ut my since January 1.

As I Deficiency in rainfall since March Accumulated deficiency in rainfall

Local Observation S P. M. Yesterday.

Wind-velocity

Havre 78
Jacksonville 82
Kansas City 80
Louisville 80
Montgomery 84
New Orleans 76
New York 84
Oklahoma 76
Pittsburgh 72
Raleigh 86
St. Louis 74
St. Paul 76
San Francisco 64
Savannah 82
Spokane 64
Tampa 88
Winnipeg 64
Wytheville 78

MINIATURE ALMANAC. HIGH TIDE Sun rises4:54 Sun sets7:33

at 5 o'clock I shall hold a recep-at the Rogers House, where I hope heat, have made the sick lists fill up. Promise of Relief.

danger of prostrations and deaths will be postponed, if not entirely averted. The first death of a veteran in the town of Gettysburg occurred this af-ternoon. The victim was J. D. Albert, of Washington, about seventy years He is said to have been promi

Wilkinson, Williams & Reed, Inc.

Wood's Seeds.

Late Seed Potatoes

June and early in July is the best time for planting for the fall crop for winter use. Our stocks are specially selected Seed Potatoes, put in cold storage early in the season, so as to keep in firstclass, vigorous condition. Book your orders early, to be sure of getting the varieties you desire. Write for "Wood's Crop Special" giving prices, and timely informa-tion about all Seasonable Seeds.

T. W. WOOD & SONS. Seedsmen, - Richmond, Va.

We are headquarters for Cow Peas, German Millet, Soja Beans, Crimson Clover and all Farm Seeds. Write for prices.

NOW THEY KNOW WHO GOT THEIR COLORS

MAKING THEIR MORNING TOILET.

Survivors of Twenty-Eighth Virginia Are Told Flag Is in Minnesota.

Oldest and Youngest Veterans Figure Largely in Day's News.

was put to bed, after proudly explain-ing that he had been a member of the One Hundred and Fourteenth Pennsylvania Regiment, and was 110 years old. He gave his address as Beaver Brook, Sullivan County, N. Y.

Major Hess, in charge of the hospital, gave the ancient fighter his personal attention, and, to the surprise of all, Comrade Weiss was able to sit up this afternoon, and by to-morrow morning he will be ready to be dis-The youngest veteran is George Mc-

Gowan, fifty-eight years old, of Har-risburg, Pa. Mr. McGowan fought all through the war, yet when he was introduced last night to General Felix Robertson, of Texas, the youngest brigadier in the Confederate service, slightingly and remarked:

"A son of a veteran, eh?"
"No, sir," retorted McGowan hotly,
"I was at Malvern Hill, Antietam, the Wilderness---"

He was going on to catalog all the battles of the war when a friend of Robertson nodded acquiescence, where-at the ex-Confederate did the hand-

PENSION SOUTH'S

distinction amongst those who love them because they died for the South sought or expected. The men who come from the South come as Confederates. True, in a broader sense, they are Americans, but for this particular occasion they are distinctly Confederates.

"I beg your pardon," he remarked.
"Shake, comrade."
General Robertson, by the way, is General Robertson, by the way, is here to locate the site for a Texas monument, this being the only State whose troops participated in the battle of Gettysburg that is not represented of Gettysburg that is not represented the four years of the Confederate nation's life resplendent with heroism monument, this being the one, whose troops participated in the battle of Gettysburg that is not represented by a monument on the field.

B. P. Boessinger, of Richfield, N. C., has brought along his fiddle and keeps the Confederate camp lively with olditime melodies in dance measure. The melodies in dance measure to their heroes of the Confederate have been danced the same of the four years of the confederation with the four years of the four years y ing all day long to the time of "Your ideals same as ours, "Arkansaw Traveler," "Mississippi Sawyer" and "Turkey in the Straw." "Lee and Stone Sydney Johnst In nentity connected with the United States Pension Office. Death was due to a stroke of paralysis Mr. Additional Control of the Control of t

The hospitalities of the tent were extended to the wanderer, and presentily he was stretched out on a cot sound asleep.

This morning Captain T. H. Presnell, of Company F. First Minnesota Volunteers, wakened to find the "Reb" sitting on the side of his bed.

"What is it, comrade," he asked.

"Tm just thinking," replied the ex-Confederate, "that since some of you Yanks had to get that flag, I'm glad it was you all. You are pretty good people."

The oldest living veteran, and certainly the youngest looking, figured largely in the day's news of the camp Micajah Weiss, who is said to be 112 years old, who admits that he is 110, and is a veteran of the Mexican, as well as the Civii War, was picked up along the Emmittsburg Pike this rorning by a private automobile and brought to the Emergency Hospital near headquarters, suffering from the heat.

It looked as if the old veteran was put to bed, after proudly explaining that he hall been a member of the House of Delegates.

In the Circuit Court of Spotsylvania County, Mrs. Irene Brooks has been gates.

In the Circuit Court of Spotsylvania County, Mrs. Irene Brooks has been growed here absoluted over the progressive Paralysis.

In the Circuit Court of Spotsylvania County, Mrs. Irene Brooks has been growed before the progressive Paralysis.

Special Cable to The Times-Objasteh.]

Rome, July 1.—Porter Charlton, the white spending their honeymoon at Lake Come in 1910, may never be desertion. The custody of the infant was given to the mother was given to the mother.

Of the Confederate soldiers who were members of the Fredericksburg Artillated to The Indian Hall the All the extraction of the infant was given to the mother was given to the mother

Take Your Choice: 1, 2, 3 or 5 Years.

BECOME AN INVESTOR.

WILL PURCHASE A

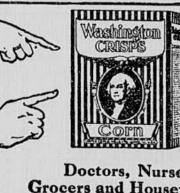

GUARANTEED MORTGAGE obligation of the Mortgage Guaranty Corporation.

Remember the Number, 1109 East Main Street,

Richmond Trust & Savings Co., Inc.

Capital, $1,000,000.00

Doctors, Nurses Grocers and Housewives agree that for delicious flavor and nutritive value combined no other food quite equals Washington CRISPS

10c.—The BIG Package of Toasted Corn Flakes—10c.